THE RISING SUN STOVE POLISH FACTORY AND BLACK LEAD WORKS, CANTON MASS.

AN ACROSTIC.

Royal the Rising Sun,
In the east on fiery car,
Strong his daily course to run,
Is with welcomes hailed afar.
Nature in his radience bright,
Glowingly her form arrays;

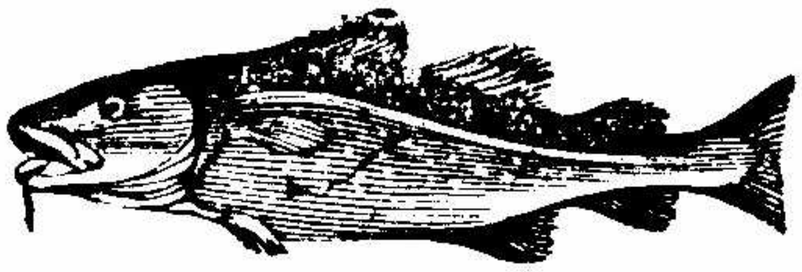

Sings her songs of sweet delight,
Unisonant in his praise.
Nations dwelling far and near
See with joy his golden beams;
Throwing back dark night, appear,
Over plains and hills and streams,
Vividly his beams suggest
Every bright and cheerful thing;

Perfect, of its kind the best,
One, the POLISH that I sing,
Lo! afar you find it famed,
It the praise of all hath won;
So this Polish has been named,
Happily, THE RISING SUN.

THE TOWN OF HYDE PARK.

The town of Hyde Park, in the county of Norfolk, is situated on the line of the Boston and Providence and New York and New England Railroads, at a distance of about eight miles from State street, Boston, and is a thriving and enterprising town of nearly ten thousand inhabitants. The town was incorporated April 22, 1868, from territory taken in part from the towns of Dorchester, Milton and Dedham. May 15th last was the twenty-ninth anniversary of the building of the first house in the town, in what is now known as the Fairmount district, which event was the beginning of the place. The first school was begun in the spring of the year 1857. The Real Estate and Building Company, which was the leading spirit in promoting the growth of the town, was formed in 1857 and incorporated in 1861. The first religious meeting was held in June, 1857.

Few towns in the Commonwealth can boast of a finer or more healthful location, or more natural beauties of situation and of scenery than the town of Hyde Park. Its growth the past few years has been rapid and healthful, due in a great measure to its excellent graded schools, public library, churches, halls, highways, "Improvement Society," and last, but not least, its unsurpassed railroad facilities. The two well managed railroads furnish a better railway service for the people of the town of Hyde Park than is enjoyed by those of any other town in New England.

The Industrial interests of Hyde Park have contributed a great deal to the town's growth in the past few years, giving to its citizenship a large and intelligent class of skilled workmen. The large woolen mills of Messrs. Robert Bleakie & Co., American Tool and Machine Company, Brainard Milling Machine Company, the cotton mills of Messrs. B. B. & R. Knight, (J. F. Gardner, Supt.) at Readville, Messrs. Glover & Willcomb's curled hair works, Messrs. Tileston & Hollingsworth's paper mills, the Readville Rubber Company's works, Messrs. John T. Robinson & Company's machine shops, Frampton's Morocco works, Gray's shoddy mills, Scott's wool scouring establishment, the chemical works at Readville, and the Boston Blower Company's works, combine to give the place the appearance of a live, enterprising and thrifty business community.
